THE WORLD IN BRIEF.

Victoria will celebrate the fiftieth year of her reign by a review of her army.

Since 1852 there has been spent in beautifying and improving Paris $373,000,000.

The prospect of a cold Winter East is said to have bulled the stock in crematories.

Land around Manchester, England, can be rented for twenty-five cents an acre.

Croizeth, the French rival of Sara Bernhardt, is about to leave the stage and marry.

Surgeon-General Hamilton says all danger of cholera invasion is past for this year.

The women of New York will make a general organized attempt to vote next Tuesday.

Alfonso, of Spain, is running on one lung. His left lung is destroyed by consumption.

Fashionable people on Murray Hill, New York, employ a man by the year to feed and take care of their cats.

A strong man stands at the door of each Austrian theater to turn back all ladies who wear high hats. Happy Austria.

Mr. Hunter, Second Assistant Secretary of State, has been in the service since 1829. He was appointed by Jackson.

Smallpox has been entirely eradicated from Germany by revaccination of the whole population at twelve years.

Thirteen girls, all under thirteen years of age, were arrested last week for drunkenness on the street in daytime, in Lowell, Mass.

The eye doctor in India operates with a knife for cataract, out of doors with the patient standing up, and the operation is usually successful.

In Burman, disputes which here would be taken into the Court, are settled by the two parties putting their heads under water. The one who can duck the longest gets the case.

A Philadelphia lady says that if you trim your finger nails every Friday you will never have the toothache. She has practiced it over twenty years, and it has never failed.

The liquor licenses in Bergen have been used to build and pave a new street, and the city authorities with a fine sense of the fitness of things have named it "Drammensvei," or Grogway. A clergyman in New York married himself to a girl and signed his own certificate. The lady is in doubt whether she is sure enough married or not, and the lawyers disagree about it.

A St. Louis physician cured a case of opium habit by the use of cocaine, but found when the cure was complete that the cocaine habit had been formed, which was as bad as the original disease.

A man in New York who has been a victim to a card swindler, went into Court and described from memory thirty separate marks that had been put on as many cards by the thumb-nail of the sharper, each of which identified its particular card.

GENERAL GRANT'S BODY.

During several weeks past there has been much speculation in the minds of New Yorkers as to whether General Grant's body would remain or be removed from the State. These doubts grew out of the recently-published statement, attributed to Hon. J. B. Chaffee, to the effect that the family of General Grant did not wish the General's body to remain in the city, and that Congress at its next session would take action in the matter. In order to make sure about the matter, the Grant Monument Association decided to take action in the matter, and on the 16th inst Mayor Grace, as its Vice President, wrote a letter to Mrs. Grant, stating the rumors at some length, saying they were likely to interfere seriously with the raising of funds for the monument, and asking her to make a positive and definite statement on the subject, to be given to the public. Her reply is appended:

NEW YORK, October 29.—DEAR SIR: Your letter of the 16th came during my absence, and was seen on my return from Long Branch. Riverside was selected by myself and family as the burial place of my husband, General Grant; first, because I believed New York was his preference; second, it is near the residence which I hope to occupy while I live, and where I will be able to visit his resting place often; third, I have believed, and am now convinced, that the tomb will be visited by as many of his countrymen here as it would at any other place, and fourth, the offer of a park in New York was the first which I observed and unreservedly granted the only condition imposed by General Grant himself, namely that I should have a place by his side. I am sir, very respectfully, JULIA D. GRANT.

To Wm. R. Grace, Mayor, City of New York.

SENATORIAL.

The Carson Appeal says:

The busy hum of the Senatorial bee buzzing in the bonnets of several parties is now heard all over this coast. A good many men claim to be thoroughly posted as to the combinations being made, but the Appeal has yet to find a man who could advance any good reason for the faith that was in him. Senator Stewart is just now prominently before the people as an advocate of the silver interests of this State.

The Silver State charges that he, while in the Senate, voted for John Sherman's bill to pay the bond-holders in coin, as well as for the bill passed in 1873 to demonetize silver and limit its legal tender quality to five dollars. This is a serious charge against Stewart, and as yet, however, it is only a matter of newspaper rumor, as the Silver State presents nothing to substantiate the statement.

The matter, however, should be investigated before the horse is saddled and bridled and taken out on the track. The Republican party should recognize the sort of race before it, and settle upon some man whose record cannot successfully be assailed. The charges against Stewart should be investigated by Republicans before the campaign begins, and the truth or falsity fully established.

If men are running a big race for heavy stakes they do not enter horses which are not wholly sound in wind and limb. If the horse has gone lame it is best to know it before the starter's flag falls and the word is given to go.

Rollin Daggett, John W. Mackay and W. S. Hobart are spoken of, but as yet no one has announced himself except Daggett. The various parties who are anxious for the Senatorial honors had better meet in a friendly way and ascertain how much strength each can count on. Let the strongest go into the fight squarely before the people, assisted by the others.

The Republican party has thrown away easy things in politics here before now, and the leaders of the party ought to profit by the experiences of the past.

If President Cleveland has contributed $1,000 to the New York Democratic fund, why should the other Federal officials be held up for violating Civil Service rules in contributing to the Republican fund in the last campaign?

Dr. Noah Porter, for the past thirteen years President of the Yale College, handed in his resignation at a meeting of the corporation Thursday afternoon, to take effect from the next commencement. No cause is given.

Judge Barrett yesterday sentenced Ferdinand Ward, the most accomplished villain of the age, to ten years hard labor in Sing Sing prison.

SHERMAN'S LAST CHANCE.

The San Francisco Call says:

The drift of Washington political gossip is that Senator Sherman will concentrate all his strength to secure a united Ohio delegation in the next Republican National Convention. His opponent in Ohio Republican politics has been ex-Governor Foster, who has a burning ambition to be Senator. It is now said to be Sherman's purpose to give Foster the Senatorship when his present term expires, and in this way secure Foster's influence in 1888. It is probable, also, that Senator Sherman has some consideration for the general assumption that a United States Senator cannot be elected to the Presidency. The experience of United States Senators has been that some comparatively dark horse came in and carried off the prize. Sherman, Coggin, Blaine and Edmunds are recent instances of ill success in this line of natural ambition. The Senate is naturally the nursery of Presidents. It is the highest political honor which can be conferred by a State upon a favorite son, and is more in the line of natural precedence than the Supreme Court or diplomatic service. One would suppose that a President would be selected from this chamber in which the highest talent and ripest experience are congregated. But the trouble is that the Senators think so themselves. Every man of them is Presidential aspirant of more or less prominence. There is probably not one who has not thought out a contingency in which he may be selected as the most available candidate.

A Senator always has some influence with the delegation of his own State to the National Convention of his party, and in many cases this influence is exerted against any Senator but himself. Sherman, probably, will gain some points of advantage by allowing Foster to be elected Senator next Winter. On the 4th of March Sherman will become an ex-Senator, with the prestige of having made a Senator. Foster is not yet a Presidential aspirant, and with his present ambition satisfied may prove a valuable aid to Sherman. The two combined would doubtless secure for Sherman a united vote from the Ohio delegation. From present appearances Sherman is the only man from a large State who will go into the next Republican Convention with a united delegation behind him. Everts can hardly hope to secure more than a fair majority in New York, and there is no strong Republican candidate in Pennsylvania. Illinois will present Logan with a more or less close approach to unanimity, and Indiana may present Harrison. But Sherman, with a united delegation from Ohio at his back, would be a strong candidate.

THE WINNEMUCCA RACES.

A Large Attendance—Good Music and Lively Races.

The Silver State of Friday says:

Yesterday, the third day of the races, was considered by many the most interesting of the season. The brass band, under the leadership of John Cox, was in attendance and made the air resound with lively music. The attendance was good and betting lively. In the first race, a dash of one mile and a quarter, for a purse of $200, Lige Clark, Pilot and Garfield started, the horses getting a good send-off, Clark next the pole. Clark took the lead at the start and kept it, winning the race and first money. Time, 2:17½.

The second race, trotting to harness, mile heats, best three in five, for a special purse, was between Belle Spencer and Hancock. The horses got a good send-off, Hancock next the pole. Hancock took the lead and kept it, winning the heat in 2:44. The horse also won the second heat by three lengths, time, 2:39; notwithstanding which the mare continued to be the favorite in the pools. In the third heat Hancock broke, the mare took the lead, and took the heat by a length; time, 2:40.

Darkness coming on almost unexpectedly, owing to heavy and threatening clouds in the west, the race was postponed until one o'clock this afternoon.

The Commissioner of Education has informed the Secretary of the Interior that he has been diligently endeavoring to perfect arrangements for the education of children of school age in Alaska, without reference to race. Two schools have been established—one at Sitka and one at Juneau, and the reports received indicate favorable progress. He recommends the establishment of schools at Fort Wrangell, Jackson, Boyd, Fort Yukon, Kuskokwim, and additional schools at Sitka and Juneau. The recommendations have been approved by the Secretary.

The amended game law of Colorado forbids the killing of mountain sheep for ten years from April 7, 1885. It is thought this will prevent the extinction of one of the noblest and characteristic of animals.

There was never a railroad collision in Rhode Island. The State is large enough for only one train at a time.

WASHINGTON GOSSIP.

Correspondence of the S. F. Post.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 24th.
"So Mr. Secretary Manning is engaged, is he?" exclaimed Senator Beck the other day, addressing a stalwart colored doorkeeper in the Treasury. "Well, I don't know that I care about seeing him to-day, but just wait until the Senate is in session, and we will then find out if Mr. Manning can receive all sorts of people, while United States Senators are compelled to wear their heels in the corridor!"

Democratic Congressmen arriving here state that they are receiving letters from their constituents continually asking that the Civil Service Commission be abolished. The pressure against the system will be very strong, and it is doubtful if the commission will be voted any funds.

The improvements at the capital basement are progressing finely. The exterior of the House wing is being treated to a good scouring from cornice to foundation, and the marble walls will gleam white and clean in time for the next session.

Senator Ransom delights in introducing ladies to the President. He is an inveterate matchmaker.

President Cleveland will give three dinners during the Winter to the diplomatic corps, members of the Cabinet and Senators. He will give four public evening dress receptions, commencing with December. Miss Cleveland will return to the White House next week.

General Benjamin F. Butler is a daily attendant at the Supreme Court.

The President spends an hour each day upon his forthcoming message. It will be a model of brevity.

The President's massive seal ring gleams for an instant in the subdued light of the First Presbyterian Church as he places a dollar greenback in the contribution basket. He never gives silver. Every other Sabbath is his limit for attending church.

Private Secretary Lamont receives about as many callers daily as the President. He takes the gentlemen to the window overlooking the lawn and talks in a low tone.

"Offensive partisanship" has entirely disappeared from the list of charges made against Republican officials. The expression became offensive.

Israel Green, who, as a Lieutenant of marines, struck down old John Brown with saber, at Harper's Ferry, before the war, has been appointed an Indian Agent. After serving in the Confederate army he removed to Dakota.

Attorney-General Thomas, of Colorado, is here watching the interests of the State in the suit of Brown against Grant, the Governor and others. A quarter of a century ago Mr. Brown gave the State land upon which to erect a capitol building. After delaying a good many years the State finally raised half a million dollars by taxation to commence the structure, when Mr. Brown steps in and attempts to hold possession of the land, claiming the long delay of the State authorities rendered his deed of gift void. The case is in the United States Supreme Court here, and involves nearly half a million dollars.

A man named Bacomber, of Buffalo, an intimate acquaintance of the President, has been here seven months, seeking an office in the Customs service.

The Chinese Embassy has moved into Stewart Castle, on Dupont Circle.

Miss West, the beautiful daughter of the British Minister, won $10 on the races of the National Jockey Club.

Miss Bayard, daughter of the Secretary of State, was a constant attendant upon the races. She is an accomplished horsewoman.

The double lancers, the military schottische and the glide polka-quadrille are among the latest dances in fashionable circles here this season.

Beautiful Autumn tints have rendered the foliage of Washington's sixty thousand shade trees a picturesque charm to the landscape.

New hotels are opened this season and still board is high.

The Bureau of Statistics reports the exports of agricultural implements from the United States during the past twenty years as valued at forty-two and a half million dollars. The trade is steadily growing.

ATTAINED HER MAJORITY

Nevada was admitted into the Union as a State by proclamation of President Lincoln, issued October 31, 1864, consequently she is twenty-one years of age to day. The battle born State is yet young, and her resources and capabilities not by any means fully developed. A prosperous future awaits her—Enterprise Oct. 31, 1885.

Hon. William E. Smith, of New York, has been appointed Assistant Secretary of the Treasury in place of Charles E. Coon, resigned, to take effect on November 10th. Smith is a lawyer, aged forty and resides at Plattsburgh, with an office in New York City, where he is one of the attorneys of the Delaware and Hudson Central Company. He has been leader of what is known as the Young Democracy, and has been identified with the Tilden element in the party.

An Overworked Official.

The Carson Appeal says:
Wm. Corbett Jr., the young man who has been appointed by the United States Government to carry the immediate delivery letters in this city, has been hard at work all the past month waiting for the letters to arrive.

During the term of his incumbency he has carried three letters, and on payday the sum of eighteen cents, or six cents for each letter carried will be due him from the national exchequer. Besides staggering under the grave responsibilities of his office at the small salary above noted, he is in momentary expectation of being bounced for offensive partisanship, and has it from reliable sources that he is down on the executive black-list, as Mr. Cleveland has not allowed his case to escape his eagle eyes.

LOVELOCK NOTES.

THE INDIAN FANDAG—WHEAT AND BUL- LION SHIPMENTS.

The Lovelock correspondent of the Silver State writes that some two or three hundred Indians are attending the "Pine nut" dance on Big Meadows. In the evening the country for miles around the dance-ground is illuminated with the grease-wood fires, and the scene is picturesque. Several whites join with their red brethren in the festivities and general good feeling prevails.

Big Meadows still continues to ship wheat and barley to San Francisco and Port Costa. Up to this date eighty carloads have been shipped from Lovelock and Granite Point, and considerable more is awaiting shipment. Besides cereals farmers are now shipping hay to California, and several car-loads of alfalfa were sent over the mountains last week by Joseph Hill.

Through the exertions of Hon. P. N.
Marker, the Southern Pacific management gives farmers the low rate of $4 per ton to tide water, which enables them to market their crops.

The potato crop is unusually large this season, and it is estimated that there will be a surplus of 750 tons for shipment to California.

Marker Brothers have disposed of several thousand tons of alfalfa, to our next Governor, Col. J. A. Hardin, and that gentleman has 500 heads of beefeves feeding here now.

Several shipments of bullion were made from the Bernies mines during the month, aggregating $9,000. The mill is at present running on ore from several mines, which are under the management of G. W. Bothwell.

CRYSTAL WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.

Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Marshal were very happily surprised last Friday evening by the entrance of their friends, bearing burdens of crystal offerings, silver and flowers, the occasion being the fifteenth anniversary of their marriage. The festivities commenced and the arrival of the evening train brought friends from a distance, making a double surprise.
The time was passed in social games and cards, all seeming as happy and merry as though it was their own wedding they came to celebrate. Many beautiful presents were displayed, among which we noticed the following:
A beautiful berry dish, filled with lovely flowers, from Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Marshall; silver and glass bouquet holder, with flowers, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Higgins; cut glass perfume set, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Shoemaker; cake stand in blue glass, Mr. and Mrs. E. Meyer; fruit stand, in amber glass, Mr. and Mrs.
P. B. Comstock; hand-painted cuspidore, Mr. and Mrs. Osburn; sugar bowl, creamer, spoon holder and batter dish,
Mrs. Wm. Webster; plate glass mirror, Dr. W. Bergman; a silver bouquet holder, with glass napkin ring attached, Master Guy Flint; a pickle stand of embossed glass, set in silver of finest pattern, Mesdames R. H. Kinney, Judge W. M.
Boardman, Dr. Bishop, Judge Young; an elegant frosted glass cake stand, set in silver, from Mesdames L. J. Flint, W. McLaughlin, M. A. Mosher and T.
K. Hymer, filled with white and gold chrysanthemums, in the center of which was an "M." wrought in purple panes; cake stand and cheese dish, without a card, and other gifts, but the names were not ascertained. All joined in wishing the worthy couple many years yet of usefulness and connubial felicity.

THE TEAM SELECTED.

Captain Wright has selected the following men to shoot to-day against wagers made that the Carson Guard team cannot make a certain number of points. They are paired off in the order in which they shoot: Suffell and Slocomb, Wright and Heritage, Parker and Cowing Jr., Cowing and Daugherty, Colver and Tom Alley, Laing and Men-der, Doc. Alley and Bicknell, Thaxter and Richards, Hark and Maish, Little,
and Cagwin, Dorner and Gordon, Starling and Doyle, Homer Thaxter.

It was definitely learned Friday that General McClellan came very near being made a member of President Cleveland's Cabinet; that he was tendered the Russian Mission and declined it because of business engagements, and that within twenty-four hours prior to his death the President had concluded to offer him an appointment as member of the Civil Service Commission.

LEGITIMATE BUSINESS.

A FEW REMARKS ON THE SUBJECT FROM ABRAHAMS BROS.

Abrahams Bros., of the well known firm and popular White House clothing store have just received a large invoice of the finest and most fashionable styles of men's and boys' clothing and gent's furnishing goods, which they offer at prices that will astonish every customer. They have no old shopwork goods to dispose of, but all new and fashionable goods of the very latest and best manufacture, and of the best made material. As to the prices, they offer good square bargains to all who have the cash in hand to deal with. As from the variety to select from, they have a whole big store full, and no one can fail to find just what they want, and better still—at their own price. Abrahams' Bros. buy all their goods direct from leading manufacturers for cash, at the very lowest cash rates, consequently they are enabled to give their customers the full benefit thereof. In order to give this proposition a practical test, just call on Abrahams Bros., and make your purchase. A word to the wise is sufficient.
Read, experience and profit thereby.

A 'FRISCO OPINION.

Speaking of Miss Jeffreys-Lewis' San Francisco engagement the Call says: Miss Jeffreys-Lewis's week at the Baldwin has been a rare treat to theatergoers. Her personation of Stephanie de Mohrivar gave more than a glimpse to lovers of dramatic art what possibilities there are in acting, and how many who attempt to reach them are confounded in the deed. It seems almost as if our stage standard had been placed so low by the incompetents and amateurs thrust on the public before their time, that the brilliant acting of Miss Lewis was out of place, for several, lulled by the namby-pamby, sing-song style of actresses of limited capacity, complained that they were disturbed by the lightning-like vividness of Miss Lewis's method in portraying the adventures.
Many candidates for the favor of the Muse lay their offerings on her altar, but they remain cold, unnoticed and undisturbed. When the true artiste comes, as in this case, with votive gifts, they are touched and illuminated by a divine spark from the Muse herself.
The attendance was greater toward the close of the week than at the commencement. The public were awaking to the fact that there was an actress at the Baldwin when the curtain dropped and hid her from sight. It is a pity Miss Lewis cannot secure a permanent engagement in this city instead of being forced to take her chances in the country. It is so refreshing to enjoy the result of talent, of study and experience in the acting art, instead of enduring tyros in their wild reaches after the unattainable.

The lady will appear at the theater
Wednesday evening next.
